The image displays a large television screen showing the Plex media server interface. At the top left, the "PLEX" logo is visible next to a search icon. Below it, a section titled "TOP MOVIES IN ADVENTURE" features a grid of movie posters including "Avengers", "Captain America", "Inception", "The Dark Knight", "Pirates of the Caribbean", and others. Below the grid, the title "The Avengers" is displayed along with its runtime "2012 / 2 hr 22 min". In the foreground, a laptop also displays the Plex interface, mirroring the TV's content. The overall scene illustrates a home entertainment setup where digital media is accessible across multiple devices.
