Are you looking for new sources of supply, or buyers for your excess inventory? The International Trade Conference (ITC) 2012 brings together some of Europe's most active brokers, traders and distributors of PC components, smartphones, consumer electronics and game consoles.

The conference, organized by IGT/ICB/IPT, hosts key disties and traders for a huge range of products, from iDevice accessories, to PC components and accessories, mobile phones and consumer electronics (TVs, games consoles, etc).

Delegates get to book 1-to-1 meetings with buyers and suppliers, with use of private meeting rooms. After the daily conference, one gets time for networking, making it an ideal opportunity for relationship-building.

Channel Media Europe Editor-in-Chief Bob Snyder is guest speaker. A well known keynoter, Snyder has been heard at various conferences and events, including RetailVision, DISTREE, Gitex/InfoComm and IT Channel Vision.

The ITC 2012 takes place on 31 May - 2 June 2012, at the 5-star Corinthia Hotel St. George in Malta. You can check out more details through the link below.
